

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Ray Sands

Inducted in 2000

Ray Sands – Ray Sands and his band, The Polka Dots, celebrated their 50th Anniversary this year. Beginning as a municipal band formed to play a few weekly concerts to raise funds for a new hospital in Zumbrota, Minnesota, the group decided to stay together and as a band their popularity mushroomed. Not only did they play a three-state area but Washington D.C. and internationally as well

